From Detroit Metro Airport:

Take I-94 west to Ann Arbor (approximately 18 miles). Turn north onto US-23 (Exit 180). Get off at the Plymouth Road exit and head west (left) on Plymouth Road, and follow directions below. "Driving west on Plymouth Road."*

From downtown Detroit:

Take the Lodge Freeway (M-10) north and follow the signs for I-96 to Lansing. Take I-96 (approximately 22 miles) to M-14. Exit to left and take M-14 (approximately 16 miles) to US-23. Turn south onto US-23, and immediately move to the right lane, exiting (right/west) onto Plymouth Road, and follow directions below. "Driving west on Plymouth Road."*

From Lansing:

Take I-96 east for 41 miles to US-23 south, and exit 148A on the right. Stay on US-23 south for 14 miles, merging with M-14 east, and remaining on US-23 south to the right (approximately 3 miles). Stay right for Plymouth Road (Exit 41) and head west (right) on Plymouth Road, following the directions immediately below.*

*Driving west on Plymouth Road:

At the third stop light, turn south (left) onto Huron Parkway. The first street to the left is Baxter Road, and UMTRI is on the left-hand corner. There is ample designated visitor parking in front of the building and visitor permits are available in rm 102.

Busses:

AATA #1 stops on Huron Parkway, #22 on Hubbard. UM Northwood stops on Hubbard, Northbound Commuter on Huron Parkway, and Intercampus on Baxter Road.

Parking Directions

UMTRI is located on the northeast campus of the University of Michigan. Baxter is one street south of Plymouth Road and runs east/west between Huron Parkway and Green.

We are a 4-story building at the northeast corner of Huron Parkway and Baxter. Please park in the east lot in one of the spaces marked "UMTRI Safety Pilot Participant" parking. Follow the sidewalk to enter UMTRI through the east doorway into the lobby. We have a receptionist there that will call the appropriate person down to the lobby to bring you to the laboratory where the study takes place.
